Foreword

'53

So that you — the student body of N. H. S. may more easily recall every activity and school function, as well as the unconventional side of school, we, the Senior Class, present the 1953 DOGIE. It is our hope that each and everyone of you feel that it is your annual.

DEDICATION

With sincere appreciation, we dedicate the 1953 Dogie to Mr. Fred Bond, who, during the past seven years, has directed the New-castle High School Band.

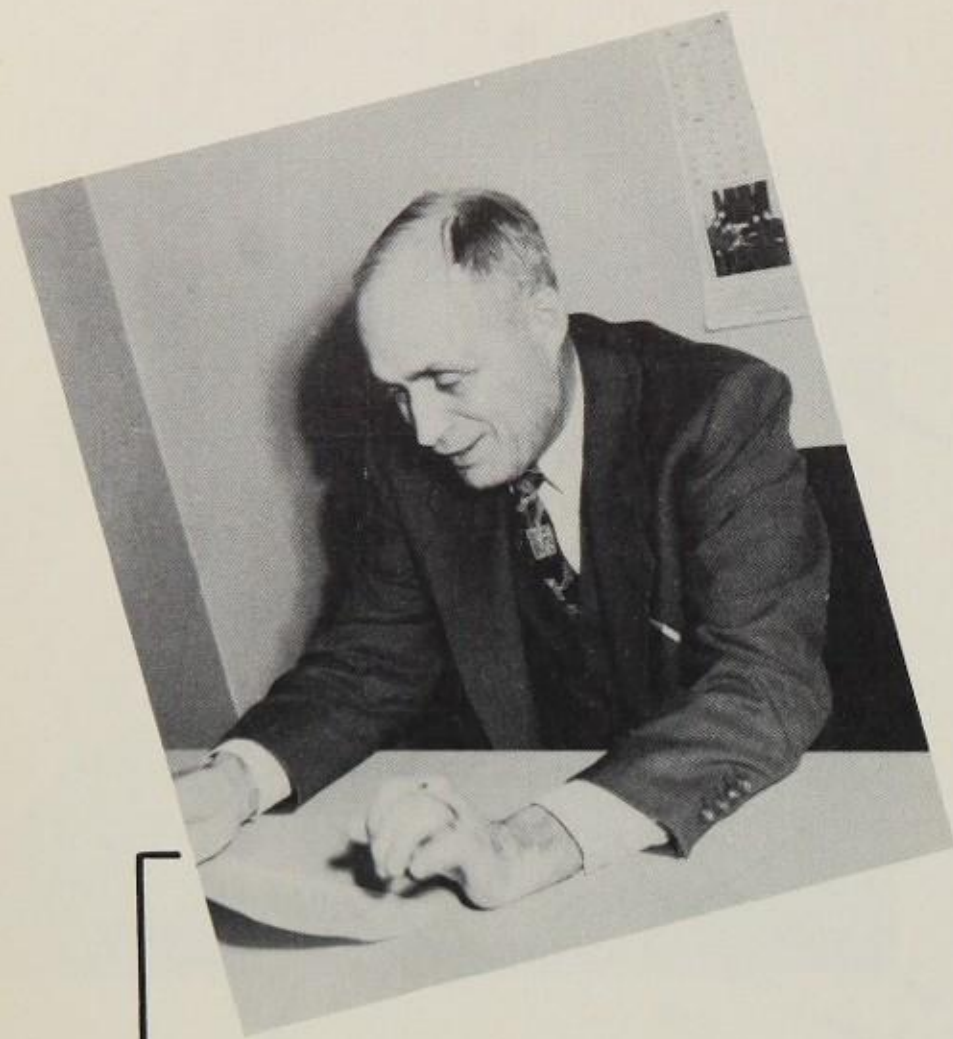

Due to his endless efforts, Mr. Bond has developed the band into an organization worthy of state-wide recognition in concert playing. With an undying school spirit, he has led the band as they played the "Victory March" at every home game.

Mr. Bond, we thank you.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Seniors:

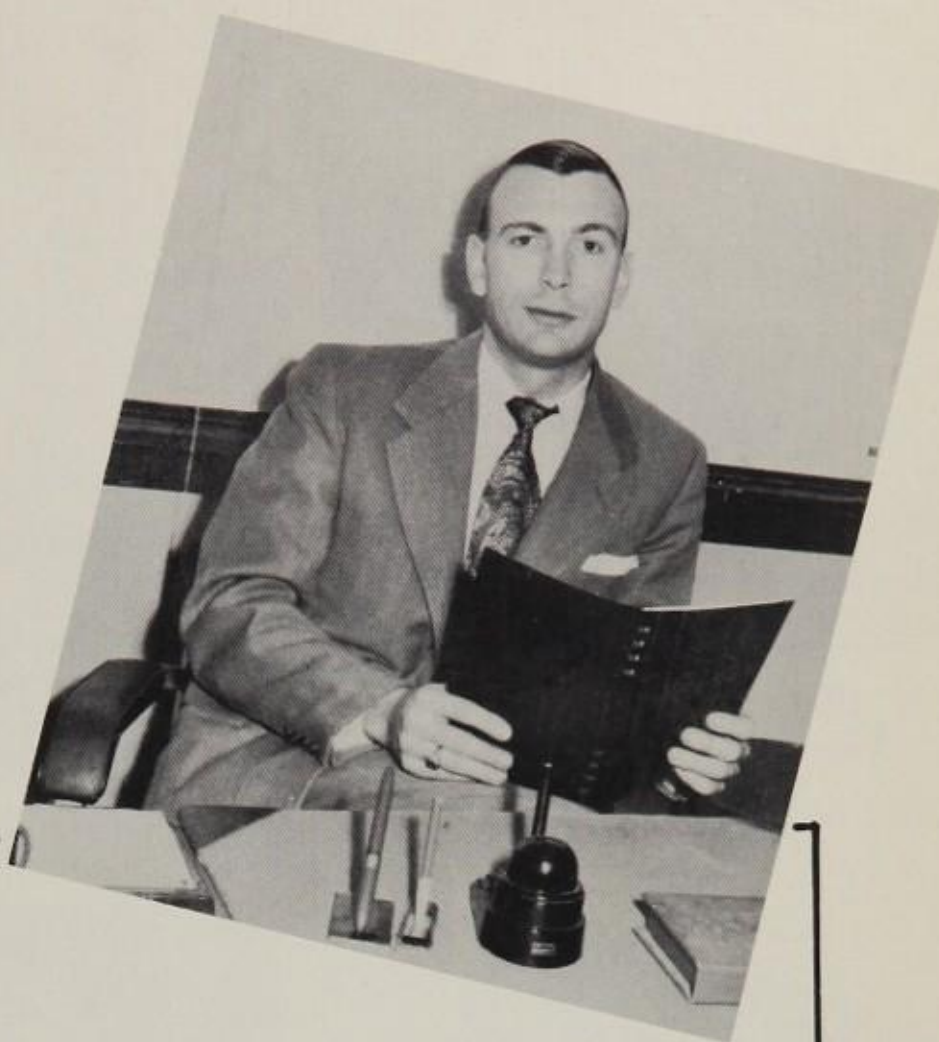

The Board of Trustees join with me in wishing you the success that will come from hard work well done; from responsibility freely accepted and the happiness that must result from keeping faith with your fellow citizens and your God.

Our educational plant with its high school, grade and rural schools, buses, health service, school lunch and many other activities is devoted solely to making you and all our other students better citizens. We shall always have great pride in your success but the most satisfaction will come to us when you show the moral stamina we know you carry with you. So, good luck and goodbye.

Sincerely

Your Superintendent

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the graduating class of 1953:

As you graduate from high school and enter into worldly endeavors, you leave behind you a tradition of high value. It has been a great pleasure to work with you during your high school life. You may be proud of the attitudes and actions you have taken, and of the achievements of the past four years.

It is my sincere hope that you will find yourselves well prepared for the lives you are now about to take up, and that you will continue to exhibit the traits of understanding and cooperation which have made your high school years so pleasant and profitable.

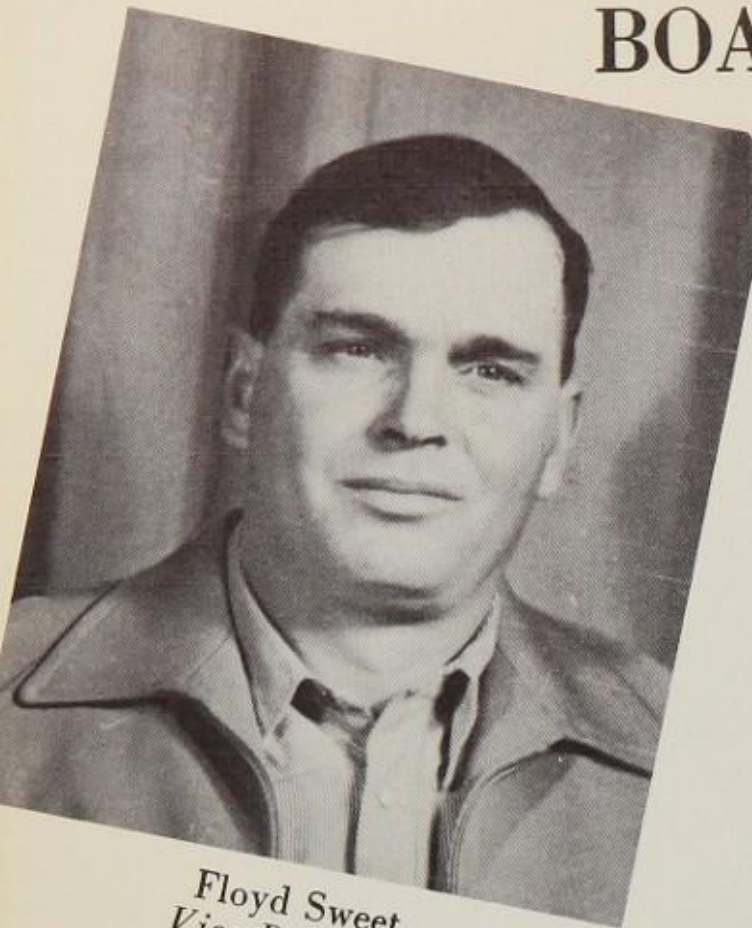

I would ask you to remember, too, that your high school teachers and myself will continue to be interested in you, your problems, and your accomplishments. Please feel free to drop in for a visit at any time.

Sincerely,

MARSHALL S. MACY

Last Will and Testament

Being of sound mind (?) and body, (we think), we, the Senior Class of 1953, do soberly will the following:

Earl Allen says he can't spare anything to leave, except his old, tattered pin-up picture of Miss Kinder. Kenneth Beer leaves a case of his last name in the broom closet (on ice!) for the next American History class party.

Bob Bogue leaves his '41 Ford (plus any necessary repair bills) to Foster Fields.

Hazel Borgialli leaves her recently cleaned-out locker to Betty McLeland next year.

Roy Borgialli leaves all of the Ag. jokes for Jerry Mann to tell to the new Ag. students.

Maxine Boyd leaves all of her waste paper in her typing room desk.

Dick Brown leaves his seat on the Osage bus to Kenny McCollom (especially those cold mornings!)

Bill Burleson's decided not to leave! He's going to keep Jean company until she graduates.

Freddie Carr leaves his car to brother Larry.

Billy Cattles leaves his yodeling ability to Colleen Cool.

Jack Clark leaves and takes Jeanne with him.

Jeanette Cummings leaves her half of the "Pony Express to Laramie" for Merline Thompson's use next year.

Jeanne Davies just left with Jack!

George Denny leaves his better half behind—darn it!

George Dern leaves his ability to go steady so long to any serious minded fella.

Eloise Devilleneuve leaves her sweet smile to Selma Chittim.

Jim Dixon leaves his hearty guffaw (which can be heard all over the building) to Dennis Dixon.

Joanne Doughty leaves with a hoarse voice from cheerleading and Bill by the hand.

Violet Draper leaves her quiet ways to Veanna Feaster.

Alyce Eatherton leaves her enviable scholastic record for Darrell Schoonover to match.

Cora Ferguson leaves her shorthand book to Irene Cummings.

Ed Ferguson leaves! with a book from salesmanship—in memory of Mr. Fields.

Shirley Franklin leaves all her good times at NHS for Pat Pool to continue.

Jerry Gardner leaves his ability on the cornet to Frances Boulden.

Clara Goodson leaves her long blonde locks for Elaine Culver. (Note—don't chop 'em off right away!)

Betty Gould leaves her marked up school books for Mr. Morgan to erase.

Reg Grieves leaves his fondness for Lefty Frizzel to Marvin Rawhouser.

Shirley Mae Hansen leaves her "inside job" to Noble Richards.

Richard Hayne leaves his with (or wits?) to Duane Portwood.

Ellen Horton leaves her Cadillac to Merril Tanner, to be painted anything but yellow.

Kay Kearns leaves the stars in her eyes to Margie Fawcett.

Alice McAnulty leaves a pair of her tight levis to Norine Curry.

Tom Mitich leaves his heart and his guitar to none other than Judy.

David Moberg leaves his friendly grin and spirit of fun to Bob Davis.

Bill Oliver leaves an invitation for everyone for a big party Saturday night.

Dennis Patton leaves his cowboy boots to Tommy Spencer—no fair stretching!

Nancy Peterson leaves the other half of the "Pony Express to Laramie" for Claralee Chittim for next year.

Dean Ray leaves his carload of girls (not including Pinky) to John Ellis.

John Rogers leaves his memories of those debate trips for Bunny Kennedy.

Katilou Russell leaves her seat in study hall for any poor freshman next year.

Dean Ryder has decided to leave both the redheads and the blondes alone and stick to Air Force Blues!

Jean Sewell leaves her uppers to Janice Hansen.

Don Simmons leaves his flirty winks for Freddy Marquiss to maintain.

Arlyce Sorenson leaves her sparkling eyes to Eli Mirich.

Dean Swindler leaves his broad shoulders and height to Delu Toppenberg.

Duane Tanner leaves the echo of his tenor voice floating around in the auditorium on mixed chorus days.

Richard Taylor leaves his girl-catching, bashful grin to Harry Jo Purcelli.

Eugene Tetrick attempts to leave again ! ! !

Madonna Toppenberg, before she leaves by the nearest exit, wills Tellie Williams her blonde, short curls.

David Updike leaves his basketball ability and high points to Danny Joe Hansen.

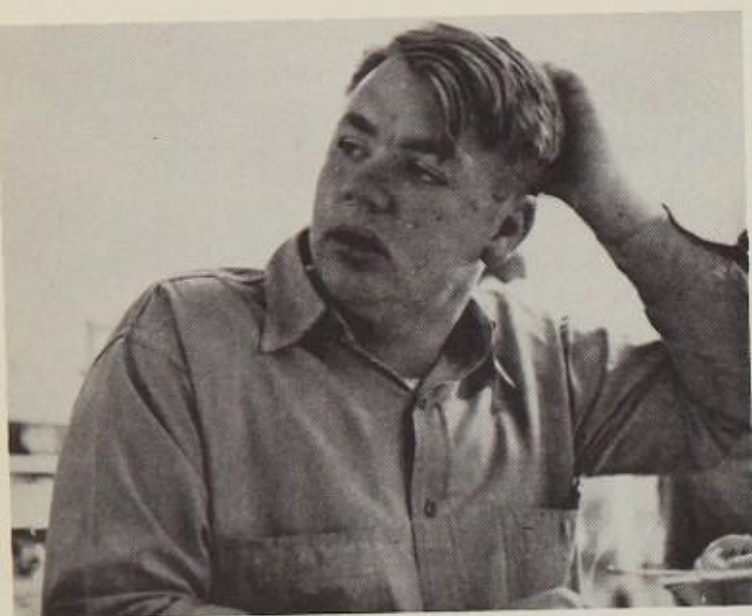

Melvin Wildey leaves the next D. E. class a pair of sharp scissors to use the next time they "cut up."

Bruce Wilson leaves his past due make-up slips for anyone feeling ambitious—

Wayne Wilson leaves his past romances behind to look for new ones.

Jim Wiltse leaves his wavy hair for any girl to have a crush on!

F. H. A. CHAPTER

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of girls with a total membership of 344,987 members and 8,265 chapters. F.H.A. contributes to the growth and development of the individual girl as well as to her home and family life.

Our chapter consists of 78 members, two chapter mothers: Mrs. Franklin and Mrs. Cummings, two chapter fathers: Mr. Crouch and Mr. Weigher, and our advisor, Mrs. Elma Slenker.

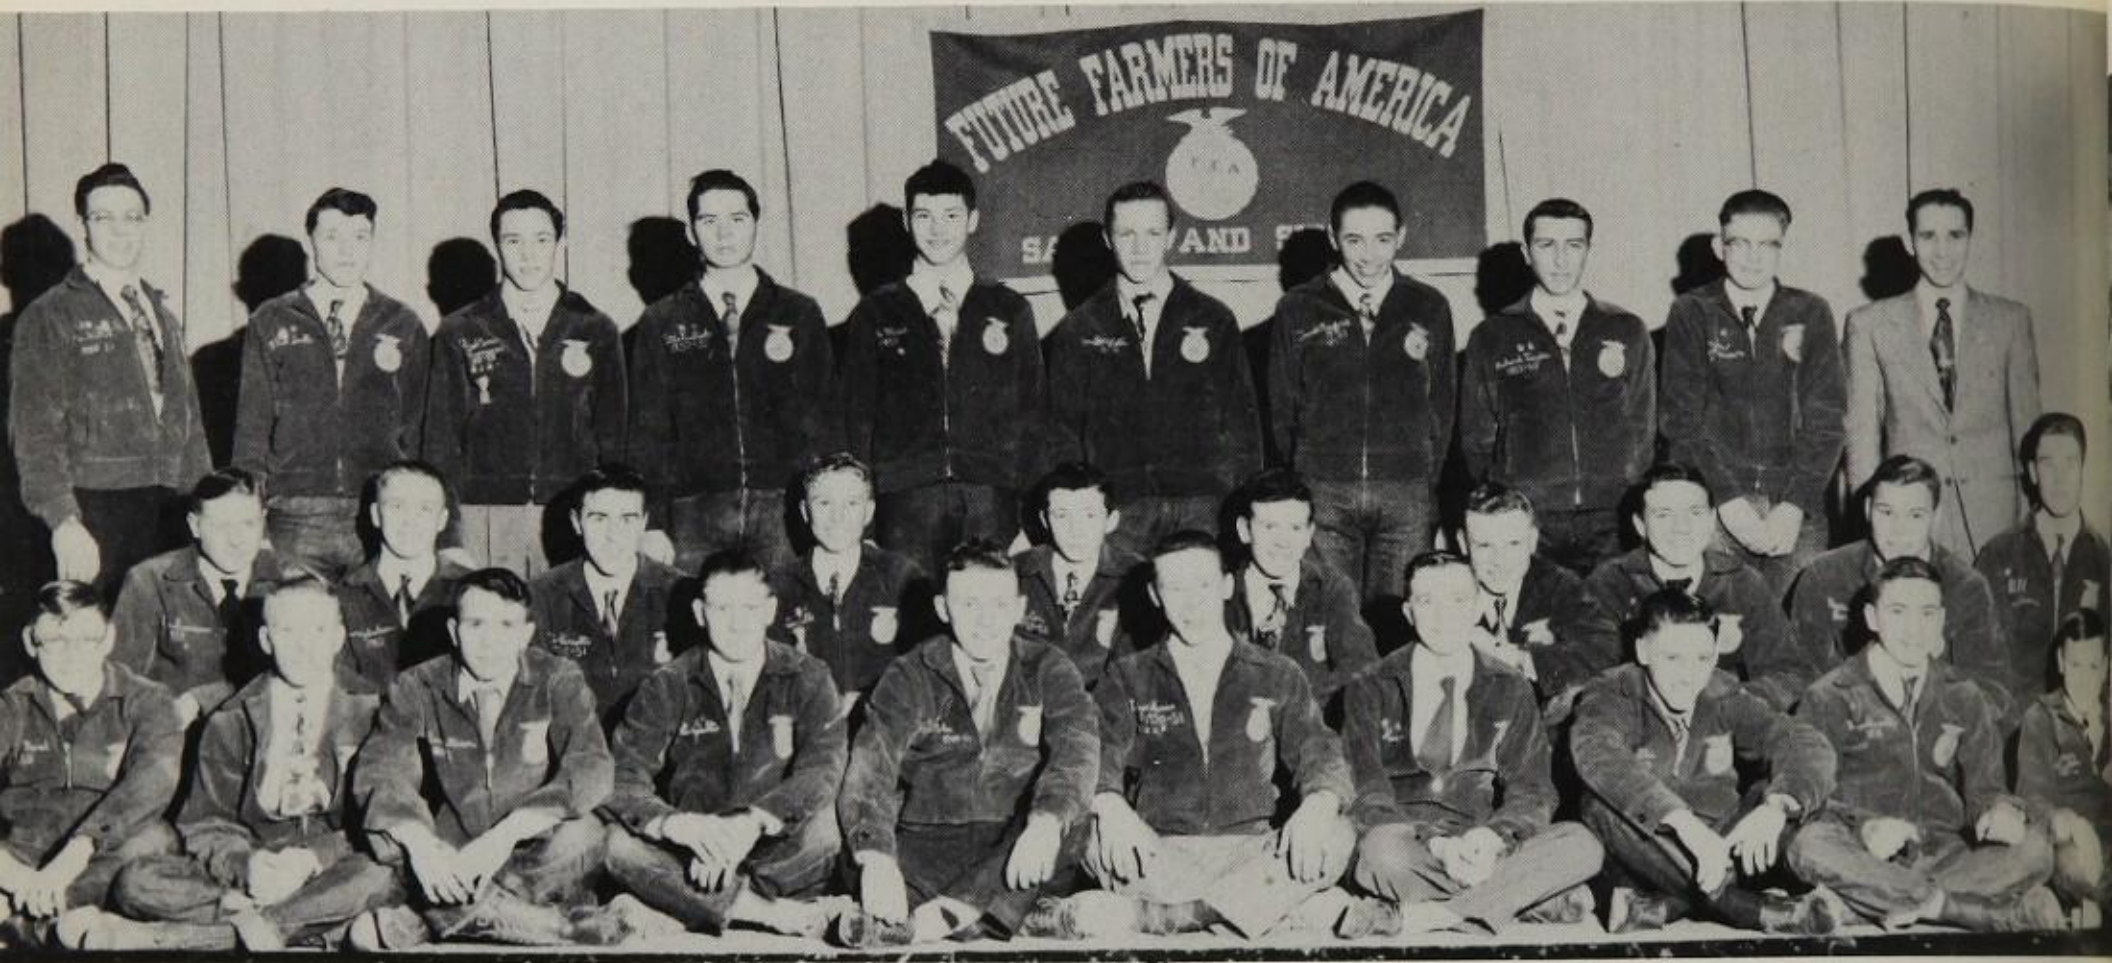

New ideas being tried out this year are "Big Sisters" and "Chapter Fathers." The "Big Sisters" were appointed to help the new members become acquainted with F.H.A. and the "Chapter Fathers" help the chapter mothers and the advisor in chaperoning and advising the girls. Our chapter had the honor of helping to install the new Upton Chapter this year.

For our state and national projects this year, we celebrated the "World Christmas Festival" and observed United Nations Day. A gift box was sent to India, the country chosen this year, and many of the members wore Indian costumes to the World Christmas Festival party. An assembly consisting of a skit, two readings, and a talk on Europe by Mrs. Cleveland was given for the high school in observance of the United Nations Day.

Through these and other projects our chapter is evaluated. Everytime a project is completed, a block in an outline of a house is filled in. When the blocks are completely filled, our chapter will be rated an honor chapter. We are happy to have earned an honor chapter this year.
